

Highlands Behavioral Health System

Patient Grievances

Highlands Behavioral Health System has a grievance resolution process designated to ensure fair consideration of grievances made by or on behalf of Highlands Behavioral Health System patients and quick resolution of those grievances.

WHO MAY FILE A GRIEVANCE: Any patient placed at Highlands Behavioral Health System or any person involved in the welfare of a patient placed at Highlands Behavioral Health System (e.g. relative, foster parent, guardian, etc).

WHAT GRIEVANCES ARE CONSIDERED: The grievance may be about any rule, policy, action, condition, or decision made or permitted by Highlands Behavioral Health System, a Highlands Behavioral Health System employee, or any other person paid by Highlands Behavioral Health System to care for a patient in treatment at Highlands.

WHEN A GRIEVANCE MAY BE FILED: It is important that grievances be filed as soon as possible. Most grievances should be filed within 5 days of the action or incident.

HOW TO FILE A GRIEVANCE: Grievance forms are available on each unit and upon request. You may write your grievance on the form and include your desired resolution of the problem. Sign the form and return it to the Department Manager. Your Patient Representative will respond within 24 hours or the next business day, to any concern that is not resolved within the department where your concern began. You can ask for assistance from a Highlands Behavioral Health System employee in getting the form and writing and filing your grievance. Within a short time after your grievance is filed, an attempt will be made, with your participation, to resolve the concern.

For more information about the grievance procedure, contact the Patient Representative:
